Portrait of Dr. Jesse.

Picture of Head of University of Missouri in Lancaster Courthouse.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LANCASTER C. H., VA., November 16.—Hon. T. R. B. H. Jesse, judge of this circuit, has succeeded in securing a fine picture of Dr. R. H. Jesse, president of the University of Missouri, to be hung on the walls of Lancaster Courthouse. President Jesse is a native of Lancaster, having been born and reared in England Forest, the son of Mary Ball, mother of George Washington. It is expected that the presentation of this picture to the University of Missouri will be made by Colonel A. Fred Fleet, now superintendent of Culver Military Academy, of Indiana. Colonel Fleet is a native of Lancaster and is the pioneer ancestor of his family in Virginia, was one of the first representatives from Lancaster in the Virginia House of Burgesses. Colonel Fleet is a life-long friend of President Jesse, and for many years has been a resident of the University of Missouri. Jesse is doing a noble work in all the walls of all the courthouses in his district with the pictures of the men who have been so famous in the history of the State and Nation.
